

PALATKA JEWS TO OBSERVE NEW YEAR MONDAY - TUESDAY

Celebration of the Jewish New Year, better known as Rosh Hashanah, occurs this year October 3.

According to the practice of the Synagogue, it will be observed as a holy day from Sunday evening, October 2, until the evening of the following day. Among Orthodox Jews, a second day of Rosh Hashanah is also observed, in addition, on October 4th.

Rosh Hashanah shares with the day of atonement, which occurs ten days later. The distinction of being one of the two most solemn and inspiring holy days of the Synagogue. Its Biblical basis is found in Leviticus 23:24. "In the seventh month (of the Hebrew calendar) on the first day of the month, shall be solemn rest unto you, a memorial proclaimed with blast of horns, a holy convocation."

The New Year's Day, as observed by the Synagogue, is not a day of rejoicing, merely, such as is in vogue at the beginning of the secular year. This New Year is a Day of Memorial or a Day of Remembrance, on which the Jew is reminded of his duty and responsibility as a citizen and a member of the human family. His affiliation with his community binds him to do his share towards the promotion of the cultural and constructive endeavors of mankind.

The legend that represents the Jewish New Year as marking the anniversary of the creation of the world would compute the ensuing year as the 5682nd year since the world was created. According to rabbinical tradition, however, the New Year marks the anniversary of the creation of man. All humanity has, therefore, an equal share in the common heritage of a universal birthday.

The symbolism of the ritual service, such as the sounding of the shofar, or ram's horn, it utilized to arouse the conscience of the worshipper to a sense of his obligations to his fellow man, as well as to admonish of individual shortcomings.

Among Orthodox Jews, elaborate preparation is made for the recaptation of the great holidays. During a period of four weeks, at least, penitential prayers, called Selichoth, are recited. This continues until the eve of the Day of Atonement. There is a practice of uncertainty origin, called Eshleah, in accord with which the members of congregations gather near a running stream or other body of water on the afternoon of the second day of the holiday, and symbolically cast their sins into the depths.

Among the American Jews, New Year's Day is dignified by a high spiritual message, enjoining greater prayerful public worship. It is also used as an occasion to exchange greeting between members of a family and friends in the home in which the hope is voiced that they be enrolled and inscribed for posterity, happiness and service in the ensuing year.

Race For Football Honors For State High Schools On

(By Associated Press)
Jacksonville, Sept. 30.—The race for the high school championship of Florida, awarded each year by the Florida High School Athletic Association, will begin in full blast tomorrow with at least eight teams staging their initial struggles. Hillsborough high at Tampa led off the season by defeating Palmetto High of Manatee, 28 to 0, at Tampa today.

In addition to the high school eleven the University of Florida will meet the strong aggregation representing the United States Infantry School, at Columbus, Ga. So far as known, the other state institutions of higher learning will remain inactive tomorrow, or else play secondary games.

Among the high school battles, Tallahassee is bringing an out of state team to the capital city for its opening game.

The scheduled games as available here tonight include:
Bainbridge at Tallahassee; Ocala at Gainesville; Sanford, at Orlando; St. Petersburg, at Lakeland.

The probable line up of Florida against the soldier team at Columbus today will probably be as follows: Perry, center; Scott and Rosenhouse, guards; Wuthrich and Doty, tackles; Dutton and Swanson, ends; Dixon, full back; Carlton and Newton, halves, and Renau, quarter.

At Starkville, Miss., Mississippi A. & M., 20; Birmingham Southern College, 7.

New York, Sept. 30.—The American league pennant race was still undecided tonight. Cleveland gained half a game by defeating Chicago today while the Yankees were idle, but the local club needs only one more victory or a defeat of Cleveland to romp home with the flag. The Yankees decided tonight to play a double header here with the Athletics tomorrow in order to play off the game postponed because of rain in Philadelphia today. The standing tonight was:

New York 95 55 633
Cleveland 94 58 618

In addition to their two games with Philadelphia tomorrow the Yankees will play Boston here on Sunday and their final league game of the season. A postponed game with Washington has been cancelled.

Cleveland has two more games with Chicago.

Indians Not to Be Denied

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Cleveland fighting desperately today to retain her place in the American league pennant race, refused to bow to the pitching prowess of Red Faber, pitching star of the White Sox, and batted out a 3 to 2 victory. The game was a thrilling pitching duel between Covaleskie, the ace of the Cleveland staff and Faber, who was attempting to win his 26th victory of the season.

Covaleskie was unsteady at the start and Chicago got away to a one run lead in the first inning. After two men were out, Collins singled to center and Hooper followed with a single to right and Collins scored when Sheely singled to center.

Covaleskie settled down and was given sensational support in the next two innings, but in the fourth he lost control and Hooper was passed. Sheely worked him for a count of three and two and then hit to left for two bases, scoring Hooper.

Faber pitched invincible ball until the fifth when the Indians got the range. Gardner opened with a single and Sewell followed with another safe hit. Burns fanned and Faber walked O'Neill, filling the bases. Covaleskie's long fly to Hooper scored Gardner after the catch. Jamison's single to right scored Sewell and when Wamby singled to center O'Neill counted. Score:

Cleveland 000 030 000—3 7 1
Chicago 100 100 000—2 7 0

Batteries: Covaleskie and O'Neill;

Faber and Seifalk.

Poor Old Pittsburgh

St. Louis, Sept. 30.—Harnsby day was celebrated with a Cardinal victory over the Pirates by a 12 to 4 score marking the third straight for the locals. Roger Hornsby, second baseman was presented with two diamond rings, one from the Masonic Lodge and another from a fund made up of public subscriptions. A diamond stick pin was given him by the Chamber of Commerce. Two thousand dollars worth of Liberty Bonds were also given him to be used in the purchase of a home here, together with a basket of flowers. In return Hornsby clouted a homer, two doubles and score three runs. Score:

Pittsburgh 010 000 030—4 6 4
St. Louis 010 341 038—12 18 1

Batteries: Carlson, Wheeler, Morrison and Gooch; Haynes and Clemmons.
